Mr. Joe Poche

Dear Joe:

Attached is the long awaited draft of the book from Ken Follett.

The first page contains instructions from Ken. Additionally, Ross would like to have your critique including any concerns you may have.

It is terribly important to remember that this is a draft. It should be read by you only. It should not be passed around, nor should it be discussed with others. No copies should be made. After reading it, please return it to me.

Please read the draft as quickly as reasonable for your work schedule and get back to me. We want to respond to Ken as soon as possible; but it is necessary to have your input before that can be done.

I look forward to hearing from you as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Mervin L. Stauffer

Merv I have noted my comments for the author - I believe more made up is necessary. Conversations lack reason or [true] content! I have other comments to follow to Ross
