

Lyford

Gallop, Emily(?)

Vicki was wearing
gray shirt, blouses,
white blouse boots
Jodie - white sweaters & shabi pants & morose
shoes

Jennyfer - white sweaters with pink flowers,
brown slacks &
yellow jacket.

Chris - was wearing a blue suit & red
tie, white shirt.

Mourning - suede slacks,
white blouse white & red sweaters &
boots.

The children & I flew down to Dallas Sunday morning. Kitty & Lloyd Brigg met us at the airport. They took us to get something to drink at a fast food place & then we went to EDS at Sweet Home. There we were met by Mew & Tom Morgan. They showed us the route the boys

took out of town & filled us in on some other things. By then it was time for the Biggs to take us to the airport to get on the buses to meet the boys.

We got on the bus
that Rick & the girls were on & Cynthia Snyder &
her girls.

The boys finally came & we had a little time for "hugging & kissing" and just looking at each other.

Bill had bought out some presents for us & he gave them to us then. Bill looked very tired but went. I had to keep touching him to make sure he was really there. I couldn't believe he was finally home.

Then the nurses took off & took us to the reception which was something. We got filled in on a lot more of the details there. It was great to see some of our old friends.

After the reception we went home with Conby & Ed Pickering. We had a su. & eating. We spent some time talking our families so that they could all talk to Bill.

None of us were very hungry - we were still too excited. So Ed
went out for Fried Chicken & we sat at the table and ate.

The next couple of days Kitty & Floyd took us shopping for clothes for Bill. Then had dinner with the Colonel & some of the rescue team. This was a special evening & we all enjoyed it.