

p8: More suspense + awestruck canvas.

p28: Wolff in galabiya. Then explain in ch 3 why he changed his clothes

Rommel Some other real person in Rommel's camp.
Some continuing drama.

A character who represents the non-supportive Reich?

Sadat. Must be inside his head.

Wolff The one attractive thing about him is his relationship to the Bedouin.

Is a Nietzschean Superman or Bedouin warrior?

p8: More suspense and awestruck [illegible].

Troilism Sonja has some surprising game she has to play (Manny?) Elene is in control. Then she controls Wolff: ~~Wolff~~ Wolff looks at his watch; Elene does something to him.

---

101 Why is Vandam beginning to get obsessed by Wolff?

---

Elene:

1. The family is poor but something.
2. Elene is one of the older children. (5)
3. <sup>At age 15</sup> She goes to work as a maid in a European house. Because her father, a butler, is going blind.
4. She sleeps with the son of the house.

(Not Jewish!)

5. The affair discovered.
  6. The son sent away
  7. Elene is ~~was~~ fired. Paid off. Continues to send home money. Til it's gone. Some men she's met in the house offer to set her up.
  8. Father finds out what she's doing and they set Shiva for her.

p115: Have Vandam laugh again; Elene remembers the first laugh; she does not yet know that she wants his love. Why does she want to make him laugh? She begins to question her feelings.

119: Abdullah is selling information to Vandam.

131-6: Remember Daft Willie?

146-7: Australians being selling, Italians in pyjamas, find the cache of documents and call in.

151: Message begins "under calling" to identify it.

160: Wolff thinks about the explanation letter on.

~~never at that time~~

160: Wolff thinks about the explanation later on.

163: But why?

178: let Vandam see the British from Sonya's POV for a moment.

181: takes using Sgt-Major-style once - let the wife walk through? Or a sleepy child.

202: Not "she would not give herself to Wolff"
but "she did not want to".

206: Elene knows he's jealous. More throbs! More throbs! Then next few Elene scenes fall into place.

210: A woman in the first euphoria of love. Not angry.

Maybe she's happy, then she remembers: I've got to do this thing with Wolff.

237 - 243 Big things are going on but it's hard to tell.

Generally: Repeat that truth is coming out of these morning conferences straight to the houseboat.

259: Take out "Murder is sexy."

252: One more precaution.

273: Vandam knows that Wolff would guess Sonya being watched; therefore he should imagine Wolff v. careful about approaching the boat; therefore when he sees W approaching so calmly, he should suspect Kemel.

Vandam knows there's something wrong so tells the detective to call GHQ (not Kemel).
