PART III - MANNER OF PERFORMANCE (Read paragraph 21c, AR 623-105)

15. RATER
 Under Colonel Simons' leadership and supervision, the 8th Special Forces Group is performing its mission in an exceptional manner. Morale, military courtesy, discipline and esprit de corps of assigned personnel are excellent. Colonel Simons' participation in social and community activities is minimal. The appearance of the 8th Special Forces troops is outstanding. Equipment, buildings and facilities are being maintained in an excellent manner. Administrative and supply procedures, as well as the maintenance of related files and records are accomplished in a most exemplary fashion. Procedures in effect to safeguard and account for classified information are excellent. Colonel Simons is an aggressive commander who has an energetic approach to every facet of his job. He, of course, because of his assignment, is most cognizant of the principles of counterinsurgency. Colonel Simons should be selected for attendance at one of the senior service schools at the first opportunity.

16. INDORSER  I AM UNABLE TO EVALUATE THIS OFFICER FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

I concur that Colonel Simons has performed in an exceptional manner in all respects and that he should be selected for attendance at one of the senior service schools at the first opportunity. The 8th Special Forces Group furnishes the majority of the many mobile training teams this command sends to the Latin American countries. These Mobile Training Teams have always performed in an exemplary manner and thus have created a very fine impression of the unit in Latin America. The 8th Special Forces Group has developed very well and its potential is very great. Colonel Simons must be given a great deal of the credit for this progress.
